

From the Commodore – July 2009

To All SWSC Sailors:

The summer and the 'bob and bake' season are in full swing. I can only hope, that conditions at the lake still favor relaxing outings on the water without too much sweltering heat. As you may have guessed, I am still out of town....

Right after the very successful BEER cruise, where SWSC was represented with 6 boats – the most of any one club or organization- we left for St. Simons Island to spend some time relaxing: sunbathing in 100 degree heat and racing the Hobie-Cat up and down the beach – my oh my, those boats can fly.

Based on information coming from the marina management, there was some concern regarding access to the marina for SWSC members who currently do not have a slip in the marina. If you encounter somebody at the gate questioning you, simply stating that you are with SWSC will get you through – so I was ensured.

Looking way ahead, I want to remind all members that the nominations for officers for next year will be part of the September meeting – now only about 2 months away.

I am sure you know to access the fabulous SWSC website for the latest race results and upcoming activities on the lake.

I shall join you in person on the lake in 2 weeks time or at the next meeting.

A couple of racers in the “Around the Island” race. They raced around the Okaloosa Island from Ft Walton Beach Yacht Club through the Destin pass, west through to the Pensacola pass, then return east through the Intercoastal.

June Meeting Minutes

Thursday, June 11, 2009 Minutes of Monthly Meeting Held at Niks Place in Marietta

- Fleet Captain Ruth Leber called the meeting to order at 8:02 p.m. welcoming all and asking input from those who went on the B.E.E.R. cruise.

Reports

- Fleet Captain: Ruth Leber reported a good turn out at the Memorial Day race.
There are 15 more races potentially and everyone is still in the running.
Need race committee for the 6/13, 6/20 and 7/4 races.
Small boat race rescheduled to 6/27
- Purser: Account balance is $3757.44
- Social Sue & Skip: Sue Preece had an accident on her dock on Sun. 6/7 and we will not be seeing her on the “Uno Too” for almost 12 weeks. Joe and Louise Carter will “pinch hit” for Social Sue & Skip on 7/4.
- Membership: Joe Carter advised new rosters are available.
Good turnout at the Cajun raft up on 6/7.
Greek raft up 6/13 - Nik and Wanda
Jimmy Buffet raft up 6/27 -Joe and Louise
Still open: 9/19
- Sea Scouts: 11 members
Asked to do flag ceremony.

New Business

- Candace and Louise will be putting a basket together for Sue Preece
- A lengthy discussion ensued regarding correspondence between SWSC and the new Harbor Town Marina ownership--non-tenant cannot launch boats or use marina. A motion was made, and seconded, that until the problem is resolved SWSC would pick up Ruth Leber's permit since she does not have a slip and she is our Fleet Captain.
- Wanda will call Joe if alternate plans are needed for the 6/13 raft up.

Meeting was adjourned at 9:11 p.m.

Respectfully submitted
Ardythe Ball, Yeoman
